> Horrible Murder in Granville County. Early in March last, a mutilated dead body was found in a swamp in Granville county, near the house of a man named ADAM CLARK, and an investigation has led to the following facts:

About a year since, CLARK, having escaped from ustice in Granville, came to Catawba county, where he remained until the early part of March. Having sent his family back, he again returned to Granville, in company with a young man by the name of ELI SIGMAN, whom he induced to accompany him, by representing the chances of lucrative employment .-When they left Catawba, CLARK had but a few cents in money, Sigman being in possession of $50, a rifle, and a pistol, after which nothing was heard of either of them until a few weeks since, when letters were received in Newton detailing the particulars of the pledge, "No brother shall make, buy, sell, or use as discovery of the body in CLARK's neighborhood. Susa beverage, any spirituous or malt liquors, wine or picion falling on CLARK, he was arrested, having in his postession a rifle and a pistol, answering to the description of those of Sigman, and a pocket-book containing nearly the amount of money Sigman had with him. The friends of SIGMAN have gone to Granville to investigate the matter more fully.
